REGISTER TODAY

Space is limited. Final deadline is September 8. All pre-course materials, including Birkman survey, must be completed by Sept. 15. Call Nathalia Granger at (312) 693-6855, ngranger@newonline.org.

Network members are invited to take an extraordinary tour of their potential at Deep Dive Into Career Self-Management on October 22.

Prior to the program, you'll take an insightful Birkman Workstyle Assessment to measure your work style strengths and blind spots.

You'll use the results during the session to gain insight into career issues and craft mentoring and career objectives to address them.

Sandra Busby
Your guide

Birkman has been helping executives dive deeper and reach higher since 1951.

Your Workstyle Analysis will help clarify work style strengths, identify communications barriers, build strong mentor relationships and help you succeed for the rest of your career.

You'll enjoy post-event conference calls to sustain changes, track development progress and stay in touch with other participants.

Your guide on this one-day adventure is NEW mentoring chair Sandra Bushby, Director of Women's Initiatives for KPMG and a certified Birkman analyst and trainer.
